LOCATION

The Big River is located in east-central Missouri and originates in northern Iron County. It flows 138 miles northward to its confluence with the Meramec River near Eureka, Missouri (Figure 1o). Its watershed drains 955 square miles of the upper Mississippi River basin in portions of six Missouri counties. Big River has eight, order five tributaries, with Mineral Fork having the largest watershed.

